

Identity & Interior for 2Day Languages

2Day Languages is a new language school in Valencia, Spain. Central to the identity scheme is three brand colours, which indicate different learning levels and progress as the colours gradate. Multiple visual elements, like flags, arrows and sculptural lamps, integrate modernity and the idea of "goal" and "conversation" into the school inside a neoclassic architecture.

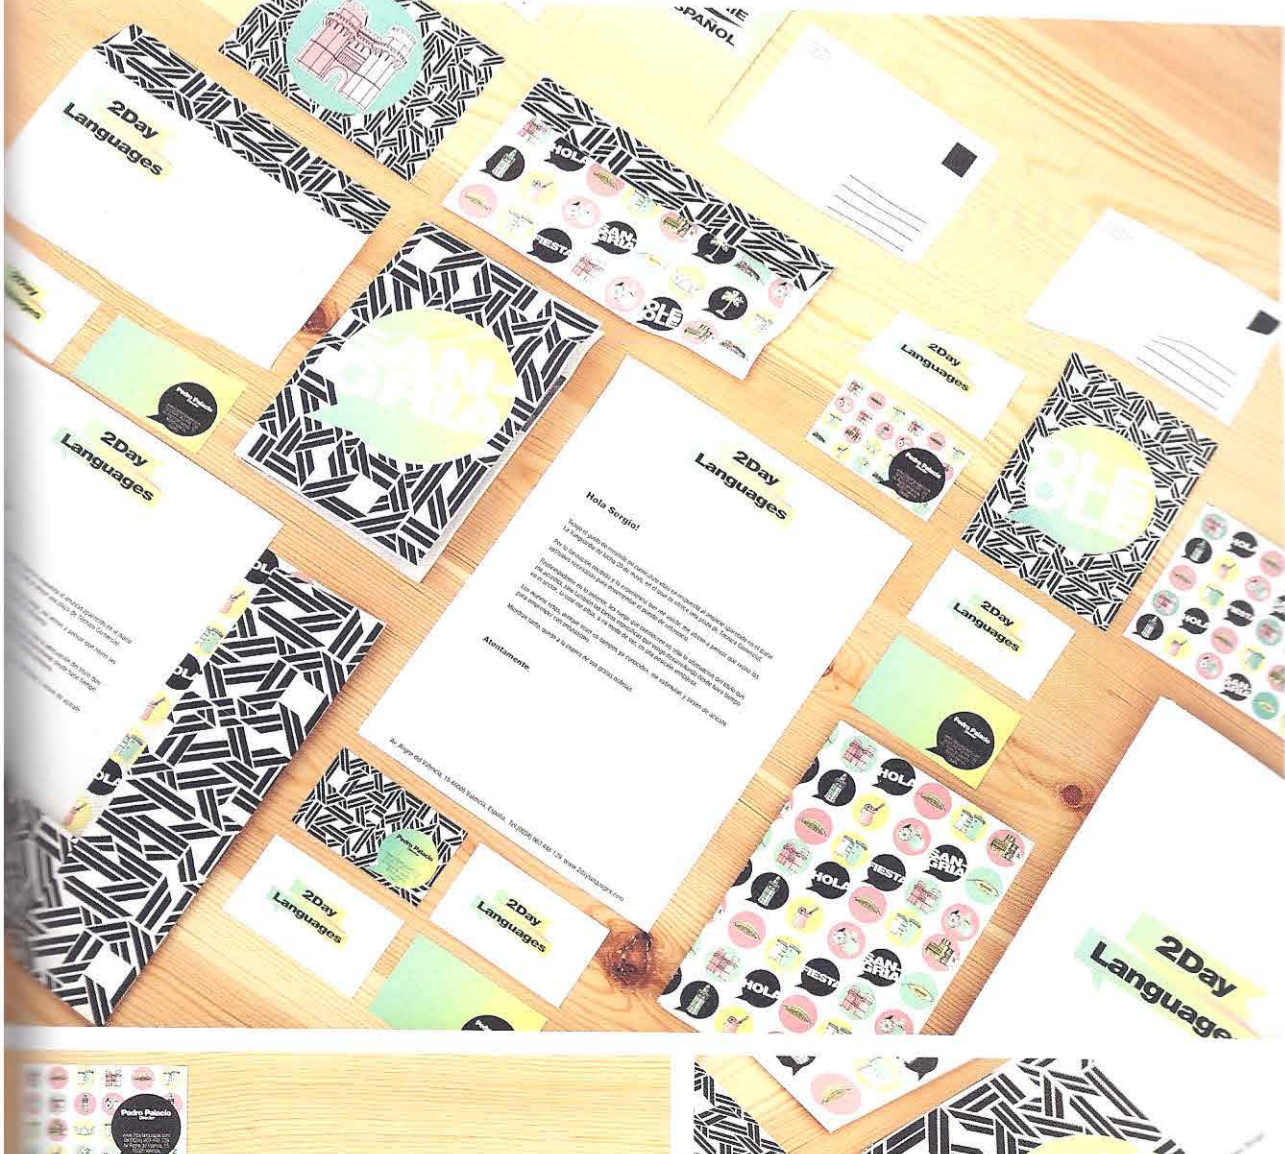

Masquespacio

Photo: David Rodríguez (Cualiti)

Client: 2Day Languages

230

233